

BETHLEHEM CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF 1961

Fiftieth Year Reunion
October 2011

Delmar
Town of Bethlehem
New York

WELCOME TO OUR 50th REUNION

Let's travel back in time for a moment. In 1791 Thomas Jefferson visited a pristine Lake George & exclaimed, "Lake George is without comparison, the most beautiful water I ever saw." Two years later several small, rural hamlets incorporated into the Town of Bethlehem. Fast forward 170 years: just over 200 students graduated from Bethlehem Central High School & began the journey into adulthood. At that point in our lives we gave little thought to how much Upstate New York had changed since the 1790s. Bethlehem was the comforting home of our youth, & Lake George was our summer playground. We were young; the present was our primary concern. Now, a mere 50 years later (See, we're really not that old!) the world is changing at warp speed, & we all, young & old, struggle to keep up with the modern world. But this autumn weekend we put aside our cares & return to celebrate friendship, our youth & the simpler life that was ours in the '50s & '60s.

Your Reunion Committee hopes you enjoy all that Bethlehem & Lake George have to offer. Notice the changes & find new things to appreciate. Likewise, renew old friendships, but equally important, reach out to discover new friends. Some of us have not strayed far from Bethlehem; others have made their homes in distant states & countries. Our lives have diversified as time has bestowed upon us varied challenges & joys. Fifty years ago our stories were just beginning. Today each one of us has many chapters to share. Our stories are rich & varied. And so, as we once again come together, may we share our stories, reminisce, look to the future, & revel in the fact that we are all lucky enough to have made it to our 50th reunion!

Warm Wishes & Cheers,
Your Reunion Committee

THE CLASS REUNION

Every five years, as summertime nears,
An announcement arrives in the mail,
A reunion is planned; it'll be really grand;
Make plans to attend without fail.

I'll never forget the first time we met;
We tried so hard to impress.
We drove fancy cars, smoked big cigars,
And wore our most elegant dress.

It was quite an affair; the whole class was there.
It was held at a fancy hotel.
We wined, and we dined, and we acted refined,
And everyone thought it was swell.

The men all conversed about who had been first
To achieve great fortune and fame.
Meanwhile, their spouses described their fine houses
And how beautiful their children became.

The homecoming queen, who once had been lean,
Now weighed in at one-ninety-six.
The jocks who were there had all lost their hair,
And the cheerleaders could no longer do kicks.

No one had heard about the class nerd
Who'd guided a spacecraft to the moon;
Or poor little Jane, who's always been plain;
She married a shipping tycoon.

The boy we'd decreed 'most apt to succeed'
Was serving ten years in the pen,
While the one voted 'least' now was a priest;
Just shows you can be wrong now and then.

They awarded a prize to one of the guys
Who seemed to have aged the least.
Another was given to the grad who had driven
The farthest to attend the feast.

They took a class picture, a curious mixture
Of beehives, crew cuts and wide ties.
Tall, short, or skinny, the style was the mini;
You never saw so many thighs.

At our next get-together, no one cared whether
They impressed their classmates or not.
The mood was informal, a whole lot more normal;
By this time we'd all gone to pot.

It was held out-of-doors, at the lake shores.
We ate hamburgers, coleslaw, and beans.
Then most of us lay around in the shade,
In our comfortable T-shirts and jeans.

By the fiftieth year, it's abundantly clear,
We are definitely over the hill.
Those who aren't dead have to crawl out of bed,
And be home in time for their pill.

My years after high school took me to Brown, a university founded by my family in colonial times. Thereafter, I married Johanna Muntz, older sister to Kindra, and took a long honeymoon in Italy, Greece and France that determined the course of the rest of my life. I would return to each of these countries more than once to live and teach. I would also reside in Turkey and Norway.

I have written much but published little, since much of what I write is regarded as out of sync with its time.

I presently live in Keene, NH with Johanna, my daughter and her young son Cameron. My son and his brood live nearby. Best wishes to everyone. (See website for original note).

I traded nasty winters and NYS for Florida (2008) where the sun shines almost every day. I attend many "Jams" where people meet, play musical instruments, sing, listen and enjoy the great outdoors. Taking mandolin lessons. I surprised myself when I bought my first brand new car, a 2012. Sandy – Sherri, NC; Lori Lynn – Nurse, FL; Joe- Tractor Trailer Driver, VA; Sharon-X-ray tech, FL Christian-First greatgrandchild Looking forward to our class reunion. God Bless.

What a wonderful education we received at BCHS, with outstanding teachers like Doris Pock! After majoring in English at college, working in publishing, then medical research, can you believe I spent 18 years manufacturing jet engines for GE? After being laid off in the 1990 recession, I became a stockbroker at Merrill Lynch, worked very hard for five years, then quit to take care of my aging mother. Now, having lost my male partner of seven years to heart disease, I work with public interest groups to help reclaim what is left of our American democracy. ... Great cause, great friends, great challenges. Cross fingers, it's not too late.

ALMA MATER

(Words by A. Marston '36)

Near the mountain's silent splendor

And the Hudson wide,

Nobly stands our Alma Mater

Filling us with pride.

Chorus

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central

Fight to bring her fame;

Conquer all who dare to challenge,

Glorify her name.

Though we pass outside her portals

When our days are through,

Orange and Black, her grand old colors,

We will honor you.
