Fifty fifth Year Reunion
September 2016

Delmar
Town of Bethlehem
New York

WELCOME TO OUR 55th REUNION

We hope you all enjoy the opportunity to get together with former classmates as we meet to celebrate our 55th Reunion. Hopefully, you will get a chance to visit the old neighborhoods, observe the changes and wonder whatever happened to Look through the booklet to see how far some have strayed from Bethlehem. Notice also, how many have migrated to Florida. A quick glance is twenty four, but surely many more go south each winter for a week, month or more. Some of our classmates could not come for a variety of reasons, many to do with their health or that of a loved one. A very few are missing. But to our knowledge, we have only lost three since our last reunion, Pam Hill, Sandra Pastori and Sally Steinke. Many of you have included notes with your registration and subject to space limitations those comments are included in this booklet.

Best Wishes & Good Cheer,

Esther Murphy Cornell

THE CLASS REUNION

Every five years, as summertime nears,
An announcement arrives in the mail,
A reunion is planned; it'll be really grand;
Make plans to attend without fail.

I'll never forget the first time we met;
We tried so hard to impress.
We drove fancy cars, smoked big cigars,
And wore our most elegant dress.

It was quite an affair; the whole class was there.
It was held at a fancy hotel.
We wined, and we dined, and we acted refined,
And everyone thought it was swell.

The men all conversed about who had been first
To achieve great fortune and fame.
Meanwhile, their spouses described their fine houses
And how beautiful their children became.

The homecoming queen, who once had been lean,
Now weighed in at one-ninety-six.
The jocks who were there had all lost their hair,
And the cheerleaders could no longer do kicks.

No one had heard about the class nerd
Who'd guided a spacecraft to the moon;
Or poor little Jane, who's always been plain;
She married a shipping tycoon.

The boy we'd decreed 'most apt to succeed'
Was serving ten years in the pen,
While the one voted 'least' now was a priest;
Just shows you can be wrong now and then.

They awarded a prize to one of the guys
Who seemed to have aged the least.
Another was given to the grad who had driven
The farthest to attend the feast.

They took a class picture, a curious mixture
Of beehives, crew cuts and wide ties.
Tall, short, or skinny, the style was the mini;
You never saw so many thighs.

At our next get-together, no one cared whether
They impressed their classmates or not.
The mood was informal, a whole lot more normal;
By this time we'd all gone to pot.

It was held out-of-doors, at the lake shores.
We ate hamburgers, coleslaw, and beans.
Then most of us lay around in the shade,
In our comfortable T-shirts and jeans.

By the fiftieth year, it's abundantly clear,
We are definitely over the hill.
Those who aren't dead have to crawl out of bed,
And be home in time for their pill.

And now I can't wait--they've set the date,
Our fifty fifth is coming, I'm told.
It should be a ball, they've rented a hall
At the Shady Rest Home for the old.

Repairs have been made on my hearing aid,
My pacemaker's been turned up on high.
My wheelchair is oiled, and my teeth have been boiled,
And I've bought a new wig and glass eye.

I'm feeling quite hearty, and I'm ready to party,
I'm gonna dance 'til dawn's early light.
It'll be lots of fun. but I just hope that there's one
Other person who can make it that night.

ALMA MATER

(Words by A. Marston '36)

Near the mountain's silent splendor

And the Hudson wide,

Nobly stands our Alma Mater

Filling us with pride.

Chorus

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central

Fight to bring her fame;

Conquer all who dare to challenge,

Glorify her name.

Though we pass outside her portals

When our days are through,

Orange and Black, her grand old colors,

We will honor you.
