

BETHLEHEM CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF 1961

Sixtieth Year Reunion
September 2021

Delmar
Town of Bethlehem
New York

WELCOME TO OUR 60th REUNION

We hope you enjoy meeting with former classmates to celebrate our 60th year Reunion. Much has changed in the 60 years since we graduated. Perhaps you will get a chance to drive by or visit the neighborhood or neighborhoods you grew up in. Saturday's event is being held at the Bethlehem Town Park on Elm Avenue in close proximity to the Senior High School which itself has grown in size of both building and grounds. Look through the booklet to see how many of the classmates have stayed in the Town of Bethlehem and how many have moved to Florida, California, and Texas etc. Some of our classmates could not come to the Reunion for a variety of reasons, many to do with their health or that of a loved one. Covid-19 and its variants have been cited as a factor in the decision of many not to attend, especially if their participation would require airplane travel. Sadly our In Memoriam Section of the booklet listing those that have passed has grown from 47 to 70 over the past 5 years. Obituaries for most of the deceased can be found at the class website: www.bchs1961.org.

Many of you have included notes with your registration. Subject to space limitations those comments are included in this booklet. The Reunion Committee consisted of

Linda (Fuhrman) Deleskiewicz
David Newell
Marilyn (Jones) Fancher

Bob Kibbey
Frank Peter Bauer
Linda (Bauer) Lamouree
William P. McMillen

Valuable assistance was also provided by:

David Utz
Lynne (Snyder) Boone
Kenneth F. Goeldner

Jennie McNab
Val Farny
Katherine (Jorgenson) Beinkafner

Special recognition is given to our Orange and Black Donors (those giving $25 or more.)

Karen (Vandermeel) Pauline, Sharon (Adams) Schmid, Michael Kunz.

THE CLASS REUNION

Every five years, as summertime nears,
An announcement arrives in the mail,
A reunion is planned; it'll be really grand;
Make plans to attend without fail.

I'll never forget the first time we met;
We tried so hard to impress.
We drove fancy cars, smoked big cigars,
And wore our most elegant dress.

It was quite an affair; the whole class was there.
It was held at a fancy hotel.
We wine'd, and we dine'd, and we acted refined,
And everyone thought it was swell.

The men all conversed about who had been first
To achieve great fortune and fame.
Meanwhile, their spouses described their fine houses
And how beautiful their children became.

The homecoming queen, who once had been lean,
Now weighed in at one-ninety-six.
The jocks who were there had all lost their hair,
And the cheerleaders could no longer do kicks.

No one had heard about the class nerd
Who'd guided a spacecraft to the moon;
Or poor little Jane, who's always been plain;
She married a shipping tycoon.

The boy we'd decreed 'most apt to succeed'
Was serving ten years in the pen,
While the one voted 'least' now was a priest;
Just shows you can be wrong now and then.

They awarded a prize to one of the guys
Who seemed to have aged the least.
Another was given to the grad who had driven
The farthest to attend the feast.

They took a class picture, a curious mixture
Of beehives, crew cuts and wide ties.
Tall, short, or skinny, the style was the mini;
You never saw so many thighs.

At our next get-together, no one cared whether
They impressed their classmates or not.
The mood was informal, a whole lot more normal;
By this time we'd all gone to pot.

It was held out-of-doors, at the lake shores.
We ate hamburgers, coleslaw, and beans.
Then most of us lay around in the shade,
In our comfortable T-shirts and jeans.

By the sixtieth year, it's abundantly clear,
We are definitely over the hill.
Those who aren't dead have to crawl out of bed,
And be home in time for their pill.

And now I can't wait--they've set the date,
Our sixty-fifth is coming, I'm told.
It should be a ball, they've rented a hall
At the Shady Rest Home for the old.

Repairs have been made on my hearing aid,
My pacemaker's been turned up on high.
My wheelchair is oiled, and my teeth have been boiled,
And I've bought a new wig and glass eye.

I'm feeling quite hearty, and I'm ready to party,
I'm gonna dance 'til dawn's early light.
It'll be lots of fun. but I just hope that there's one
Other person who can make it that night.

ALMA MATER

(Words by A. Marston '36)

Near the mountain's silent splendor

And the Hudson wide,

Nobly stands our Alma Mater

Filling us with pride.

Chorus

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central

Fight to bring her fame;

Conquer all who dare to challenge,

Glorify her name.

Though we pass outside her portals

When our days are through,

Orange and Black, her grand old colors,

We will honor you.
